The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns in the resonating matrix may become transformed from physical or emotional injury. These disruptions could result in ingrained perceptions or habits that could block a person from obtaining a condition of prosperity, health, happiness and several positive situations. Matrix Energetics works to eliminate blockages, transfer these embedded patterns and change core beliefs so as to allow the person to acquire their goals so as create the quality of life and kind of life preferred.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics think that preconceived notions of limitations are the cause of a person's issues and that these restrictions could be eliminated instantly through the healing system of Matrix Energetics. This particular healing system is believed to eliminate the causes of both temporary and chronic concerns such as headaches, muscle spasms, scoliosis, fibromyalgia, and emotional trauma amongst others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing practice although several practitioners utilize it to enhance various healing methods. One session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the client and could alter her or his beliefs concerning the structure of reality, the nature of disease and the healing process. Normally, recipients may feel a wave pass throughout their bodies since their previous view of realism is changed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, space and time are not part of reality. The consciousness of a person, according to the quantum theory, could have an effect on how subatomic particles behave. Because the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, which could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear in all places simultaneously and also move backward or forward in time. An individual's consciousness could affect these quanta to change physical matters and emotions. These views and this information have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the changes that take place on the cellular level within the client.
